

BPMS Required Summer Reading Guide

For each chapter in the book do the following either in the book or on a separate paper.

Questions

Write questions that you have in the margins of the text, or on a separate piece of paper, but include the page number so you can refer back.

It is expected that you will write one question per chapter.

Chapter Summaries

At the end of each chapter, write a 2-3 sentence summary of what happened in the chapter. If you are writing on a separate piece of paper, include the chapter title or number.

Additional information for summer reading can be found at:
<http://bpmslibrary.weebly.com/required-summer-reading.html>

BPMS Required Summer Reading Guide

For each chapter in the book do the following either in the book or on a separate paper.

Questions

Write questions that you have in the margins of the text, or on a separate piece of paper, but include the page number so you can refer back.

It is expected that you will write one question per chapter.

Chapter Summaries

At the end of each chapter, write a 2-3 sentence summary of what happened in the chapter. If you are writing on a separate piece of paper, include the chapter title or number.

Additional information for summer reading can be found at:
<http://bpmslibrary.weebly.com/required-summer-reading.html>

BPMS Required Summer Reading Guide

For each chapter in the book do the following either in the book or on a separate paper.

Questions

Write questions that you have in the margins of the text, or on a separate piece of paper, but include the page number so you can refer back.

It is expected that you will write one question per chapter.

Chapter Summaries

At the end of each chapter, write a 2-3 sentence summary of what happened in the chapter. If you are writing on a separate piece of paper, include the chapter title or number.

Additional information for summer reading can be found at:
<http://bpmslibrary.weebly.com/required-summer-reading.html>

BPMS Required Summer Reading Guide

For each chapter in the book do the following either in the book or on a separate paper.

Questions

Write questions that you have in the margins of the text, or on a separate piece of paper, but include the page number so you can refer back.

It is expected that you will write one question per chapter.

Chapter Summaries

At the end of each chapter, write a 2-3 sentence summary of what happened in the chapter. If you are writing on a separate piece of paper, include the chapter title or number.

Additional information for summer reading can be found at:
<http://bpmslibrary.weebly.com/required-summer-reading.html>

